

GARRET MACFADYEN

- First New Brunswicker and one of only 3 Canadians ever to win the Professional Ironman Canada in an amazing come-from-behind performance (2002).
- Trained and competed as a professional Ironman athlete for over 4 years (2000-2003) and had twelve top-10 finishes in national and international competitions during this time.
- Prior to turning professional, he trained & competed at the amateur level for 8 years.
- National Long Distance Triathlon Champion (2001)
- National Elite Long Distance Triathlon Team Member (2001-03)
- New bike course record at Strongman Japan (2003)
- Inducted into NB Sports Hall of Fame (2010)